BERRY & MORRISON
Cloverport, Ky.

"Now The Day Is Over" the same anthem sung by the Methodist choir of Cloverport, was sung at Mrs. Rockefeller's funeral.

New Spring line of Shoes.—Conrad Sippel, the shoe-man.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Whitehouse, of West Point, spent last Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Francis Sawyer, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Sawyer.

Walter Smart arrived from the West last Wednesday morning to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Smart. Mr. Smart looks fine and is glad to be home again.

Mrs. A. M. Vance, of Pine Bluff, Ark., has been ill several weeks at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Dean. Mrs. Vance is slowly improving, but hopes to be able to return to her home soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Behen have bought property in Breckenridge addition in Second street near Hudson avenue. Mr. P. D. Plank and daughter, Miss Edith Plank, will continue to make their home with them. They will move the last of this month.

A passenger on the L., H. & St. R. train said recently: "The young people of Cloverport have a better kind of a time than any place along the road. The churches seem to do so much for their pleasure." The fact could have been verified Thursday night at Oelze's Hall when the tacky party were given by the B. Y. P. U. More than one hundred were present, dressed in styles that was beyond description. It was the funniest tacky party given here for many years.

The Court of Last Resort.

Around the stove of the cross roads grocery is the real court of last resort, for it finally overrules all others. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been brought before this court in almost every cross roads grocery in this country, and has always received a favorable verdict. It is in the country where man expects to receive full value for his money that this remedy is most appreciated. Obtainable everywhere.

Mrs. Sawyer Ill.

Mrs. J. H. Wills, of Louisville; Chas. Sawyer and Mrs. S. D. Loyd, of Columbus, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Whitehouse, of West Point; Mrs. Alfred Heston, of Sikeston, Mo., arrived Saturday and Sunday to be with their mother, Mrs. Francis Sawyer, who is seriously ill.

Cures Old Sores, Other Remedies Won't Cure
The worst cases, no matter of how long standing, are cured by the wonderful, old reliable Dr. Porter's Antiseptic Healing Oil. It relieves Pain and Itch at the same time. 25c, 50c, $1.00.

L., H. & St. L. Buys 20 Acres.

The L., H. & St. L. railroad recently bought the twenty-acre tract of land below town from Jud Carder. In the last few weeks a crew has been busy putting down tracks and connecting switches. This week work of getting out the gravel was commenced in earnest. The gravel has been scattered along the company's road near town. The track has been raised in some places and will be raised in others. The gravel will be used for making the fills.

Baptist Church Notes.

The Sunday school will observe missionary day next Sunday with a special program and offering. About sixty pupils will take part in the program with brief parts. The program will be characterized by variety and brevity, the entire program will be rendered in less than an hour.

The pastor left Monday for Bagdad, where he is to deliver two addresses in a Bible Institute. His brother is the pastor of the Bagdad church. Bro. Cottrell will return Thursday night to be on hand for the Mission Conference on Friday.

A Missionary Conference of the Breckenridge Association will convene with the Cloverport church on Friday. It is expected that all the pastors, Mission Board members, Sunday school superintendents or other representatives, and representatives from each Woman's Missionary Society, with the Association officers will be present. As most of the visitors will come on the 11 o'clock train, the program will not begin until they reach the church. The ladies have decided to serve their guests with a basket dinner at Oelze's Hall. All members of the Missionary Society and of the church that can arrange to do so are expected to bring a basket with enough for their own family and for two or three guests. The dinner will be served at 12:15. The afternoon program will begin at 1:30 and will conclude at 4:30 to give opportunity for those returning to make the 4:54 train. Mrs. Kate Coleman Hinkle, of Louisville, will address the women's meeting in the primary room. The conference of the pastors, board members, and Sunday school representatives, will be held in the main room and will be addressed by Dr. A. C. Cree, of Atlanta, Ga., Rev. J. H. Benson, of Mexico, Rev. O. J. Cole, of Bowling Green. Visitors are expected and the public is invited to attend and enjoy these splendid addresses. Churches with mission funds on hand will send that to this meeting and turn it in to the treasurer of the Breckenridge Mission Board.

To feel strong, have good appetite and digestion, sleep soundly and enjoy life, use Burdock Blood Bitters, the family system tonic. Price $1.00.

CELEBRATE ANNIVERSARIES

With a Family Dinner to Children and Grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Pate.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Pate celebrated the anniversaries of their birthdays at their home on the hill Saturday. Mrs. Pate was sixty-two Friday and Sunday Mr. Pate was seventy-four. It was a happy day for many, besides their own children there were several others present, who had been reared in the Pate home from early childhood. Mr. and Mrs. Pate have been lovely and pleasant in their lives, and it is hoped they have yet many years of happiness before them. A sumptuous dinner was served and among those present were: Mrs. J. N. Brickey, of Kansas, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Taul, Mr. and Mrs. M. V. Perkins, Mr. and Mrs. Curt Pate, Mr. Luther Pate, Mr. and Mrs. George Pate, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Bates, Mrs. William Jolly. The guest list also included the grand-children, the total number of all present, 50.

Gregory's Assets $46,000.

Greenville, Ky., March 19.—Ell E. Gregory, president of the defunct Central City Deposit Bank, filed with the county court here today a schedule of his assets and liabilities. He places his assets at approximately $46,000. He says that he owns real estate to the value of $15,000, a lot of printing and newspaper machinery in the plant of the Muhlenberg Argus, the Central City Laundry company and other property. He places his established liabilities at approximately $18,000, but says that he owes the Central City Deposit bank large sums of money in addition, the exact amount of which he is not able to state and which cannot be known until the books of the bank are audited.

Cam Howard, the assignee, will file an inventory of his estate shortly.
